Annai Ashramam USA Foundation Hosts Charity Night, Apr. 27

The Annai Ashramam USA Foundation announced that it is hosting inaugural Charity Night at the Birmingham Temple (28611 W. 12 Mile Rd.) in Farmington Hills on Saturday, April 27.

The event, which takes place from 6 p.m. to midnight, will feature salsa dance performances from the Salsa All-Stars, singers Alka Jupudi and Karthik, an exclusive fashion show by Chrysalis Fashion, DJs and a variety of great food ranging from Indian to Italian to Mediterranean.

Created to promote the education and general welfare of community through charitable activities, the Annai Ashramam USA Foundation receives and administers funds to other domestic and international nonprofit organizations involved in education, literacy, welfare of orphans and underprivileged individuals.

Founded by Tel Ganesan in 2011, the Annai Ashramam USA Foundation focuses particularly on the support of orphaned girls through primary and secondary education. In addition to helping them with schooling, it provides job training to further their skills in order to sustain a stable future for their living and, ultimately, become women of character, integrity and confidence. Ganesan also is the president of Kyyba, Inc., a Farmington Hills-based-company, which specializes in staff augmentation, software, automotive electronics and telematics.

As a nonprofit, section 501(c)(3), the Annai Ashramam USA Foundation holds fundraisers and various events to raise money to support these efforts.

Tickets for the event before April 15 are $50 per person, $75 per couple, $99 for VIP seating and $400 for a table of 10. After April 15, the cost will be $70 per person, $100 per couple, $125 for VIP seating and $600 for a table of 10.
